

BookNest Collective

Where readers and stories meet.

PRESS KIT

BookNest Collective is an independent book media company and reader community. We read the book first, then we talk about it: on air, in interviews, in written features and in a members' community that discusses the work rather than the marketing.

MISSION

To give every author a real audience and every reader a book that changes them, through honest coverage that is earned by reading the work rather than paid for by hype.

WHAT WE DO

- Author Spotlight sessions — a full interview hour with an author, published to the listening room and the spotlight page.
- The listening room — on demand audio available free to anyone, with no account required.
- The library — a reader curated shelf where every title links out to Amazon, Goodreads, Audible, Apple Books, Kobo, Barnes & Noble, Bookshop.org and Google Books.
- Author services — promotion, PR packages, launch campaigns and marketing analysis, priced openly on the services page.
- Founder Frequency — interviews with entrepreneurs about the companies they built and the books behind them.
